Jose commenced working for Quay Appointments in July 04. Initially employed to work on the 2004 Mid Year Enrolments, Jose went on to work for a variety of Clients in a Customer Service and Administrative capacity. His most recent position, sees him back at the Department where he first started. This assignment commenced as a short term booking however supervisors recognised his potential and managed to hang onto this talented worker. Jose's supervisors made an official nomination after the 2006 enrolments. During his time with the Department he has demonstrated a willingness to be of assistance, quick to learn, loyalty equivalent to that of the departments permanent staff and a true team spirit. Congratulations from all at Quay. Thank you for your hard work and commitment to this assignment. You are a valued member of our Temporary Team.

Brett Buckley has been a delight to place, and my clients have been very pleased with his hard work and efficiency. The general feedback I have been given from my clients is that they don't have enough work for him as he works very quickly and thoroughly- "Please tell him to slow down". My clients have been delighted to have him work with them, and have been very happy with his willingness to learn how to do new tasks and his pleasant presence.

HOROSCOPE

Pisces: 19 Feb—20 March

It can be hard to put a finger on your feelings right now, a trend that will be sticking around for a while. If you allow yourself to proceed on previous assumptions, you can be way off base without realizing it, so take time to question your motivations and see if they are leading you where you really want to go. It's a good time to re-establish the difference between fantasy and reality, as the line between them can get a little fuzzy.
